

The Company's Articles of Association in relation to the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders

Chapter 5 (Articles 30 to 34 in respect of the shareholders meeting)

Article 30. The board of directors shall arrange for an annual ordinary meeting of shareholders within 4 months from the last day of the fiscal year of the Company.

The meeting of shareholders other than that in the first paragraph shall be called the Extraordinary Meetings.

The board of directors may summon an extraordinary meeting of shareholders whenever the board think appropriate. The shareholders holding shares altogether at not less than one-fifth of the total number of shares sold or not less than 25 shareholders holding shares altogether at not less than one-tenth of the total number of shares sold may submit their names in a letter requesting the board of directors to summon an extraordinary meeting of shareholders at any time but they shall give express reasons for such request in the said letter. In such case, the board of directors shall arrange for the meeting of shareholders to be held within one month from the date of receipt of such request from the shareholders.

Article 31. In summoning for a Meeting of Shareholders, the board of directors shall send notice of the meeting specifying the place, date, time, agenda of the meeting and the subject matter to be submitted to the meeting together with reasonable details and shall deliver the same to the shareholders and the Registrar for reference not less than 7 days prior to the meeting. Besides, the notice of the meeting shall also be announced in a newspaper for not less than consecutive three days before the meeting.

Article 32. The meeting of shareholders must be attended by not less than 25 shareholders or proxies (if any) or not less than a half of total number of shareholders holding an aggregate number of shares not less than one-third of all shares sold in number to constitute a quorum.

In the event at any meeting of shareholders, after one hour from the time fixed for the meeting commencement, the number of shareholders present is still not enough to form a quorum as required, if such meeting of shareholders was requested for by the shareholders, such meeting shall be revoked. If such meeting of shareholders was not called for by the shareholders, the meeting shall be called for again and in the latter case notice of the meeting shall be delivered to shareholders not less than 7 days before the meeting. In the subsequent meeting no quorum is required.

Article 33. At a meeting of shareholders, the shareholder may appoint any other person who is Sui juris as proxy present and voting on his behalf. The proxy form must be dated and signed by the principal and according to the form as prescribed by the Registrar.

The proxy form must be submitted to the board chairman or other person designated by the board chairman at the meeting place before the proxy attending the meeting.

Article 34. The resolution of the meeting of shareholders shall be supported by the following votes:

- (1) in a normal case, by the majority vote of the shareholders who attend the meeting and have the right to vote. In case of an equality of vote, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a casting vote.
- (2) in the following cases, by a vote of not less than three-fourths of the total number of shareholders present at the meeting and entitled to vote:
 - a. the sale or transfer of whole or essential parts of business of the Company to other persons.
 - b. the purchase or acceptance of transfer of businesses of other companies or private companies to the Company's own.
 - c. entering into, amending or terminating the contract relating to the leasing out business of the Company in whole or in essential parts; the assignment to anyone else to manage the businesses of the Company or the amalgamation of the businesses with other persons with an objective to share profit and loss.
 - d. amendment of the memorandum of association or articles of association.
 - e. increase or reduction of the capital of the Company or the issuance of debentures.
 - f. the amalgamation or liquidation of the Company.
